

KINGSMILL RESORT APPOINTS DIRECTOR OF TENNIS

Williamsburg, Va. – September 15, 2017—Kingsmill Resort, the only AAA Four Diamond condominium resort in historic Williamsburg, is pleased to announce the appointment of tennis professional Tomas Gonzalez as Director of Tennis. With extensive experience as a professional player and private club pro, Gonzalez brings a wealth of knowledge and expertise to Kingsmill Resort's Tennis Club.

"We are thrilled to have Tomas join our team of outstanding tennis professionals," said John Hilker, Kingsmill Resort's Chief Operations Officer. "With his extensive knowledge, outstanding playing ability and depth of experience, he'll be a dynamic resource to our members and guests."

As Director of Tennis, Gonzalez will lead Kingsmill Resort's Tennis Club by providing guests and members an opportunity to sharpen their game through private lessons, clinics, academy's, tournament play and events while also overseeing all aspects of the club. Kingsmill Resort offers 13 clay and two hard courts with two lit for nighttime competition. Gonzalez and the Resort's professional teaching staff will work with students of all levels and ambitions, stressing a friendly approach for developing a love for tennis.

Previous to joining Kingsmill Resort, Gonzalez worked for the Philadelphia Country Club and the Country Club of Virginia where he developed the club's junior, platform, and high performance programs as well as ladies league teams. During his playing career, Gonzalez achieved a national ranking of #3 in Chile's Junior International Tennis Federation before playing collegiate tennis at Southern Illinois University at Carbondale. Gonzalez stayed on at SIUC as their Men and Women's Assistant Tennis Coach where he lead the team to the Missouri Valley Conference Title. Throughout his playing career, Gonzalez was also the hitting coach of a number of top 100 Association of Tennis Professionals and World Tennis Association players. He still enjoys competing in Men's Pro Open Tournaments nationally and internationally.

Gonzalez is certified by the Professional Tennis Registry, United States Professional Tennis Association, Professional Platform Tennis Association and by Pat Etcheberry as a High Performance Tennis Fitness Trainer, and is a published writer in Tennis Pro magazine.
